Dwarf Giant Tomato

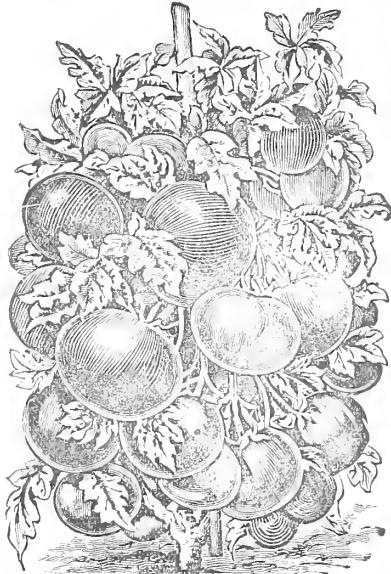

Illustration shows just what this truly Giant looks like, being a nice red. In 1913 we gave away over 150,000 sample packets of this wonderful tomato, and so great has been the praise from thousands who raised a few plants from the samples, that we have been requested to offer the seed in regular packets again. Dwarf Giant is a very stocky plant, producing a firm, smooth and solid fruit which is good for both home and market gardeners' use, a fine keeper and handles well in transit. It is the wonder of the Dwarf Giant Tomato family.

Per pkt., 6c; 3 pkts., 15c; ½ oz., 40c.

Greatest yielding variety of Pop Corn. Stalks grow about 5 feet high and sometimes ten ears have been grown on a single stalk. Popping qualities good. Pkt. 5c., 3 pkts. 12c.

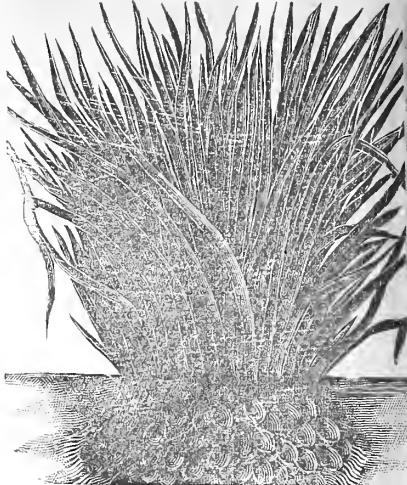

Ground Almonds

The flavor resembles the Almond. The meat is snow white covered with a thin shell or skin of brown color which is easily removed. It is very easy to grow and a single nut will yield from 200 to 300 nuts in a hill. The illustration gives a good idea of a hill growing which shows that the nuts are produced close to the surface and the foliage is of a handsome green color resembling wide blades of grass. It is a very prolific grower and will do well in any kind of soil.

The nuts should be planted in the spring about the same time as corn and potatoes, and by fall they will be matured and ready to harvest. They are then dug from the ground, spread out to dry and afterwards put away for use at any time.

We consider these Ground Almonds one of the very best things we offer in our Catalogue, and know that they will be appreciated by our customers. They grow so rapidly and make such an immense and interesting crop that you will be surprised, as well as your neighbors, when you tell them what you are growing. Pkt. 6c., ¼ lb. 25c., ½ lb. 45c., prepaid.

Brussels Sprouts

Smith's Imperial White Bean

"THE LIBERTY WAR BEAN."

One of the most nutritious FOODS. This is not a wax or string Bean, although sometimes used as such, but a good old fashioned BAKING Bean and cannot be surpassed by any other. The descriptive cut on FRONT COVER—shows Bean vine, actual size pod and shell bean in regular size and color.

From careful selection of seed each year we have what we believe is really a "LIBERTY BEAN," a War winner in the conservation of food. Vines grow very strong, upright and large, with large pods and seed, free from rust on account of their tree-like growth. This Bean has proven so satisfactory in the past that we desire more of our customers to try it—we are making it our choice this season and we feel if you have never tried them you can make no better investment for the Home and market garden.

Imperial White or "LIBERTY BEAN," is of such merit that we advise all to order early as conditions have made our stock somewhat limited. Stock is grown under our own supervision. Prices: Pkt. 10c., ¼ lb. 15c., ½ lb. 28c., 1 lb. 50c., postpaid.

It is extremely early, being the first in spring, and it is the last to yield edible pods in the fall from midsummer's sown seeds, which have produced plants that are still in pod and blossom. One of the grand points of this new bush bean is in the rich green pods, which are of an enormous size, broad, thick, very long, uniform in shape, meaty and of high quality, absolutely stringless and free from any tough stringing, not only when young, but this tender quality is retained to maturity. MAMMOTH PEANUTS

ODD COLLECTION OF GOURDS

A forage plant that was brought to this country some years ago and resembles corn somewhat, but a much broader leaf and sweeter. Very rapid growing plant after it has attained a height of 5 or 6 inches and grows to a height of 11 feet. It suckers more than other foliage; often producing 25 to 30 stalks. It can be cut when two or three feet high, after which it will rapidly grow up and as many as four crops have been cut during a season. The amount of forage per acre is something immense; in many cases 150 tons. It should be planted in hills two feet apart each way and three pounds for one acre. Pkt. 5c., oz. 12c., $\frac{1}{4}$ lb. 15c., $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. 85c., lb. \$1.60, 3 lbs. \$4.25, postpaid.

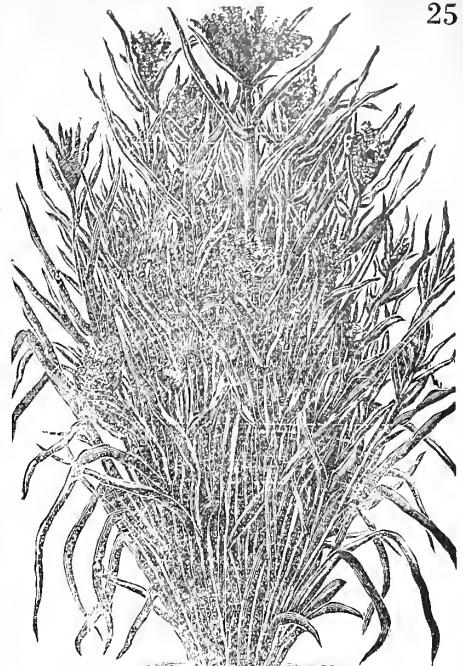

EGYPTIAN WHEAT CORN

Was recently brought to this country and found to yield very valuable crops. It is much more valuable than Kafir Corn. Is of stooling habit, producing from three to six stalks from a single grain. The heads grow similar to Broom Corn, forming large heads of round, plump white seed. It is an excellent feed for horses, cattle and chickens. It can be popped as popcorn, as it has a good flavor and is tender and crisp. It is more of a grain corn than forage, forming double the seed of Kafir Corn and more than any Cane or Sorghum plant. Pkt. 5c., 3 pkts. 12c., lb. 50c., 3 lbs. $1.40, postpaid.

MAMMOTH PEANUTS

Peanuts can be successfully grown where corn succeeds. This variety is very prolific. Every part is useful; vines as valuable feed for horses, cattle and sheep; producing from one to two tons of vines per acre, while the nuts contain a large per cent of rich nourishment. They do best on a light sandy soil, but will produce a good crop on any open soil when it is plowed deep and carefully tilled. If you grow a crop of peanuts you will also find that your soil has been benefited. Pkt. 6c., $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. 28c., lb. 50c., postpaid.

Chameleoon Egg Plant—An interesting plant less decorative by its flowers than by its fruits, which are rather large, but flattened, and have strong ribs, similar to a tomato of the old type. This new Tri-Color Egg Plant passes from white to an intensive yellow; later into a brilliant scarlet, changing color like a chameleon, producing fruits in abundance. They keep well and there are always fruits of the three different colors on the plant. Pkt. 6c., 3 pkts. 15c.

CORNELL No. 9 DENT OR WESTERN CORN.

This wonderful Dent Corn was originated by Cornell College a short time ago, and has proven by far one of the best dent or western Corns offered to the farmer. It has a good size ear (see cut), very small cob which makes husking very easy, 12 to 14 rows, deep kernel, rich yellow and dry matter superior to that of most others. Stalks are of medium height, very fine quality and producing from one to three ears on each stalk. One of the best Silo Corns known, and so early that in most cases will mature for husking, and when it does mature it becomes very hard, kernels making a good keeper throughout the year.

Owing to the small cob and deep kernels, it will outrun any other in shelled Corn per bushel of ears. Believe we are the only Seed House offering this Corn, which has been kept to its very high state of perfection, and we advise all our customers to try it. Our stock is extra fine this season, although somewhat limited, and we advise all to place your orders at once. Postpaid, lb. 40c. By express, Pk. \$1.15, $\frac{1}{2}$ bu. \$2.25, bu. \$4.25.

HIGHLAND OATS

The Highland Oat is one of great merit which far surpasses anything we know of in the Oat line. The straw is very long and stiff, growing four to six feet high, often running a head of more than a foot in length with a peculiar stalk that makes it strong and excellent for fodder. The grain is short and is a bright yellow color when ripe, with very thin hulls, and running from 70 to 80 bushels per acre. We have raised oats for more than 25 years and fail to find anything that can equal them under all conditions.

Prices, lb. 30c, postpaid. By express, peck, 50c, $\frac{1}{2}$ bu. 90c, bu. \$1.70, 2 bu. \$3.25 (32 lbs. to a bu.).

NORTHERN WONDER OATS

This is a variety that is particularly suited to many sections. We have a variety of Oats possessing the features necessary for best results in all sections. Extremely heavy crop per straw very strong and less liable to lodge than any variety we have observed, and with the extra heavy yields obtained from this variety it would well repay a farmer to sow it even if he were obliged to pay considerable more for the seed.

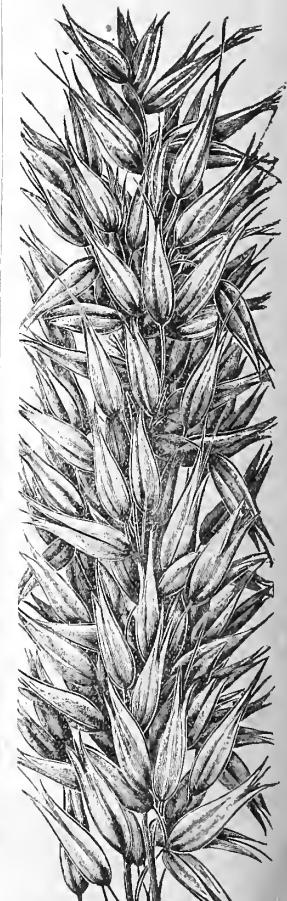

Perhaps the best description of this variety would be to say that it is improved strain of the Big Four, but is a much heavier yielder. Lb. 33c, postpaid. By express, peck 60c, $\frac{1}{2}$ bu. \$1.00, bu. \$1.75.

Brazilian or Stooling Flour Corn

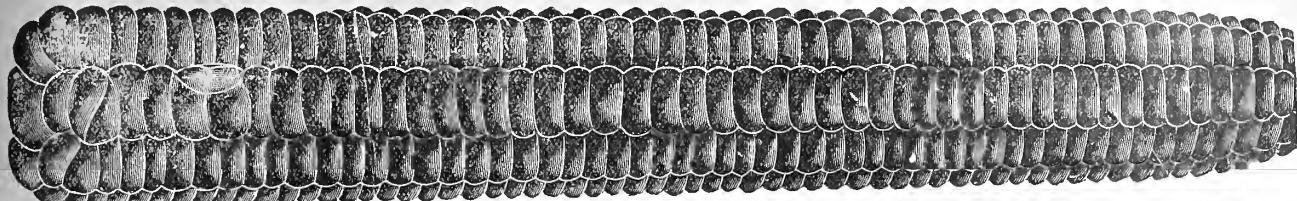

This corn yields much more to the acre, and a great deal more in shelled corn. It stools like wheat, each kernel producing from 4 to 8 stalks with from 3 to 4 ears on each stalk, about 5 to 6 inches in circumference, and from 9 to 12 inches in length of pure white kernels. Good for ensilage. It contains a larger percentage of starch than any other corn, and when ground and boiled by the same process as wheat, gives a better bread and biscuit flour than can be made from wheat. It is also used largely as roasting ears. Only two kernels should be planted to the hill. Pkt. 6c, $\frac{1}{2}$ lb. 25c, lb. 45c, postpaid.

The Corn for the Extreme North—Hardest known variety and will thrive at an altitude of 4,000 feet, where the climate is always too cold for ordinary Corn. Grains are pure white, and we are sure it will be of great value to farmers of the far north. It

PRIDE OF THE NORTH YELLOW DENT CORN

This is very desirable for early Dent Corn, suitable for main crop as far north as Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin. The color is deep yellow, grains very deep with a small eye. Grain narrow, generally about 18 rows, produces 2 ears to the stalk and makes a good yield. It is very hardy and will stand cold weather and poor land about as well as Flint Corn. Lb. 30c, postpaid. By express, 4 qts. 60c, pk. \$1.15, $\frac{1}{2}$ bu. \$2.25, bu. \$4.35.

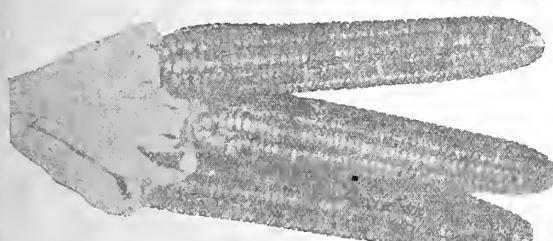

IMPROVED MORTGAGE LIFTER YELLOW CORN

We have offered this distinct Yellow Dent Corn several years, and it has given our customers great satisfaction. It grows from 7 to 11 feet high, strong, rank and quick, and stands storms remarkably. The ears are of a very large size. The largest grower of Seed Corn in America says "It will mature in from 85 to 95 days and has 14 to 18 rows on a cob, the longest and largest of any early corn in cultivation." It husks and shells easily. We have sold many bushels of this sort of seed and can say our customers are much pleased with it and we believe it is a hard variety to surpass. We have fine stock of choice seed which we can supply our customers if orders are placed early. Lb. 35c, postpaid. By express, pk. \$1.25, $\frac{1}{2}$ bu. \$2.45, bu. \$4.75.

IMPROVED LEAMING OR WESTERN YELLOW DENT CORN

Very popular and extremely productive. One of the best silo corns that are grown today. On good land the stalks grow very tall, producing two ears on a stalk. The ears are long, with small cob well filled with grain of medium size and rounded at the small end, of a rich golden color. It ripens in 100 days, and makes a good crop even in a dry season, by reason of its strong, vigorous growth. Stalks have broad leaves, making excellent fodder, while the grain, being so deep, yields an extra large quantity of shelled corn per acre. Lb. 30c, postpaid. By express, pk. \$1.15, $\frac{1}{2}$ bu. \$2.25, bu. \$4.35.

ers to try it this season. Something new in a Silo corn and a flint dent variety of exceptional merit with long ears and large kernels. Price by mail, lb. 40c, 2 lb. 75c, postpaid. By express, pk. \$1.20, $\frac{1}{2}$ bu. \$2.35, bu. \$4.50.

LUCE'S FAVORITE CORN—This highly recommended Corn is fast coming to the front, and no doubt heads the list of a Silo and Husking variety.

It has a long slim ear, small cob, 8-rowed, 10 to 12 inches long, deep yellow flint kernels with a very prominent Dent. A very broad, well developed kernel, many over $\frac{3}{4}$ inch wide. Ears maintain their same size well toward the tip of ear, giving an immense amount of shelled corn per bushel of ears. It is a cross between a flint and dent, and introduced by one of the best Corn Associations of New York State who grow, inspect, dry and sell through Corn Associations.

Through the efforts of the Corn Association, only the true type of Luce's Favorite is sent out. Last season we handled this Corn in a large amount to our local trade, and the farmers were more than satisfied in face of one of the worst Corn conditions that has confronted the country in many years. This season we are offering to our Mail Order customers this highly recommended Corn direct from original stock, and ask our Corn-growing custom-

Ever-Blooming Annual Hollyhock

We have been unable until recently to secure seed of Everblooming Hollyhock, as illustrated. They are as easily grown from seed as any annual, and commence flowering in about 12 weeks and continue to bloom until killed by frost. On account of their blooming the first season they are much more desirable to grow than any other Hollyhock, as they can be started in the house or hot beds in March or April, or sown in the open ground in May. Plants from early sown seed set out in May will commence blooming in July and will produce an abundance of bloom throughout the season. This Annual Hollyhock is a wonderful free flowering sort. The forms and colors among the flowers would be a surprise to anyone. They are produced in double flowers, semi-double, saucer shaped flowers, some with smooth edged petals, while others are fringed and of various shapes and shades. The flowers are usually very large. For a great variety of color we know of no Hollyhock that will make such a gorgeous display as the colors and markings are beyond description and should be grown to be appreciated. The plants grow very strong and vigorous and are of a branching habit. The center spike will attain a height from 7 to 9 feet, but it can be kept at any desirable height by pinching off the top. To get the best results plants should be set in thoroughly rich soil and kept watered in dry weather.
